

Imagine If

By Barbara Schiff

Imagine if you came to a country
Where some people hated you
Because you were different
Because of the way you looked
Or spoke
Or what you wore
Or what you believed
Where you were in a minority
Where you found it difficult to get work
Where you faced discrimination

Imagine if you'd come from a country
Where some people hated you
Because you were different
Because of the way you looked
Or spoke
Or what you wore
Or what you believed
Where you were in a minority
Where you found it difficult to get work
Where you faced discrimination

(Which one would you choose?)

(Imagine a country where differences didn't matter Imagine a world where this was true)
