

A Kiss for Someone Kind

by Les Barker

Peaceful in the evening
With me for a while
Your beauty is my blessing
Your happiness my smile
Gentle as I can be Easy on your mind
Like a lullaby for loved ones
Like a kiss for someone kind.

Warm me with temptation
Palest rose of purest flame
Make me apt to burn my fingers
Let my serve you just the same
Though my thoughts are not the purest
And my love is hardly blind
I've a lullaby for a loved ones
And a kiss for someone kind.

And when the nights are darkest
I'll be by your side
To take you to your doorstep
And to see you safe inside
I'll give what I can give you
And I'll hope that you don't mind
A lullaby for a loved ones
And a kiss for someone kind.

Giving when I can do
Living for today
How little can a man do
When he loves but cannot say
Offering the bluebells
From the forest of his mind
Like a lullaby for a loved one
And a kiss for someone kind.
