

Another Day

By Trevor Alexander

Monday, work day,
Need to earn your pay day
Weekend was okay day
Wish it could have stayed day

Tuesday, blues day,
Seems like lots of queues day
Weekend is too far away
Enough to turn your hair grey

Wednesday, some say
Middle of the week day
It's a gloomy grey day
Almost like it's doomsday

Thursday, better day
It'll soon be Friday
Watch the office clock day
Get us to the next day

Friday, last day
Put your pens away day
Then you say hooray
No more work till Monday

Saturday, weekender,
See your favourite bartender
Set out on a big bender
Wake up with your head tender

Sunday, quiet time
Sometimes hear the bells chime
But when it gets to bedtime
Wish you'd had more free time

Long week, looks bleak
Listen to my bones creak
Slave until the pips squeak
Let's all retire next week
